MAY 24TH 2025

NG Baguette Conf

NG Baguette Conf is the only conference dedicated to Angular in France! Its first edition will take place on Saturday, May 24th, 2025 in Nantes, celebrating the release of Angular version 20.

This event aims to bring together developers from the Nantes region and beyond for a full conference day about the Angular framework to discover the latest features and connect with experts.

Who are we?

Angular Nexus is a non-profit organization of developers committed to sharing knowledge about the Angular framework through various community initiatives.

Through our YouTube channel, Angular Devs France, we invite French-speaking experts from around the world every month to engage with our growing community of 1,200 subscribers. To date, 29 speakers, including Google Developer Experts, have been featured on the channel.

We also organize free in-person training sessions for women to promote diversity in tech. Accompanied by expert Angular mentors, learners follow a personalized training path to improve their employability and build their network.

The Organizers

Gérôme Grignon

Frontend Engineer at Lucca

Anthony Pena

The Conference

The conference will take place on Saturday, May 24th, 2025 in Nantes, from 9:30 AM to 6:00 PM.

The event will welcome 150 attendees and 8 speakers at OnePoint's office, 3 rue Lavoisier, 44100 Nantes.

Conference Space

The conference space will be located on the third floor of the building. The space includes technical facilities that will allow us to set up quality lighting and sound.

The Silver and Gold sponsorship packages includes a 5-minute promotional speaking slot on stage during the day.

Catering and Networking Space

A catering and networking space will be available to participants on the ground floor. Refreshments will be available throughout the day, along with a buffet lunch.

The Gold sponsorship package includes a dedicated exhibitor space with a table and 2 chairs in the catering and networking area.

Program

Call for Papers

A call for papers program is currently open until March 14th, 2025. The organizing team will meet over the weekend of March 15-16 to evaluate proposals and define the program. Selected speakers will be contacted no later than Tuesday, March 18th, 2025. We will publish the final program on our website and social media once speakers have confirmed.

International Reach

Like our social media communication in English and French, the on-site presentation will be bilingual. We already have 2 talk proposals aligned with this international approach, featuring speakers from Italy and Austria.

Schedule

The program will consist of an opening keynote and 7 presentations selected from submissions. The day will be structured with sessions of two 30-minute talks, with a 30-minute break every hour to encourage networking and sponsor visibility.

We invite you to join us as a sponsor for this first edition and benefit from visibility within the Angular developer community.
